NOTICE

All creditors of the desolved farming partnership of Foard Brothers, of Longview, Kentucky, are hereby notified to present a statement of claims held by them to me at Longview, Kentucky, Rural Route No. 1, or to my attorneys, Downer & Russell, at Hopkinsville, Ky, on or before August 1st, 1909.

This May 22, 1909.

JESSE FOARD, Surviving partner of Foard Bros.

National Association T. P. A. of America.
Account of the above occasion the I. C. will sell excursion tickets to Asheville, N. C. for $12.70, for the round trip. Dates of sale May 28, 29, 30. Return limit good to leave Asheville returning 30 days from, but not including date of sale.
G. R. NEWMAN, Agent.

Suicide Epidemic Unabated.
N. S. Johnson, known in sporting circles over the country as "Dick," committed suicide at the home of his brother-in-law, Col. E. H. Kilpatrick, in Newport. He was supposed to have been temporarily deranged mentally.

One Wet, One Dry.
Monroe county, Indiana, voted "dry" in a local option election Tuesday. Bloomington, the seat of the Indiana University, showed a small majority for the "wets." The county had previously been "dry" by remonstrance.

LARGE CONCOURSE

Attends Funeral of Central City Victims of Fire.

Impressive Ceremonies For Little Dorothy and Zelma Allen.

Central City, Ky., May 26.—The largest crowd of people that ever attended a funeral at Central City assembled at the Baptist church here to-day to pay their last respects to two little girls, Dorothy and Zelma Allen, victims of the accidental fire at the Gish Opera House Monday evening.

The little girls were general favorites in this city and their sudden taking away bowed with grief the entire community. The Rev. Irvine Goddard, Episcopal minister at Owensboro, conducted the services. The two little white caskets containing the remains of the victims of the holocaust were literally covered with flowers, as were the graves to which they were consigned. The pallbearers were little girl schoolmates, dressed in white, and following them were sixty other small girls arrayed in the same color. They were members of the Sunbeam Society, with which the dead children were affiliated. Several beautiful selections were sung at the funeral and grave by the Central City quartet.

Mrs. B. C. Boyd, the music teacher, who was leader of the entertainment given by the little girls when the accident took place, continues in a critical condition. Fears that she will be a nervous wreck when she recovers are entertained by her friends. She will lose the use of one of her hands, which will practically eliminate her from plying her vocation, that of a music teacher. She is receiving the sympathy and encouragement of every one, for it was her presence of mind that saved at least a score of children from meeting the same fate as the four who are dead.

Rena May Miller, another one of the children who was seriously burned, is still in a critical condition.
Mrs. Boyd was formerly Miss Irene Golliday, of Bowling Green, daughter of Jas. Golliday, a blind book-seller. Her husband was formerly a tobacco inspector on this market. Her daughter, Miss Irene Boyd, recently made her debut on the vaudeville stage in this city.

LYNCH NEGRO

Had Severely Wounded a White Farmer.

Lincoln, Ky., May 27.—Albert Aiken, a negro, who desperately wounded John Spire, a white farmer near here last Thursday, was hanged by a posse of about 100 men early Monday. Aiken was in jail here and shortly after midnight the posse broke into the jail, took the negro and carried him into the country.

His body was found marked by bullet holes and bearing this placard: "Notice—This is what will happen to all negroes in Lincoln county under similar circumstances."

"REGULARS."

What's In McClure's?

George Kibbe Turner in the leading article in the June McClure's shows how Tammany Hall, with the aid of crooks, thugs and the lowest order of parasites, controls New York City elections; Prof. E. T. Brewster contributes an article on "The Animal Mind from the Inside" in which he declares that animals cannot reason and that men do not reason anything like as much as they are commonly supposed to; Marion Hamilton Carter tells of the great work being done for "The Conservation of the Defective Child" by Dr. Witmer, of the University of Pennsylvania; George F. Parker writes of Cleveland's part in the insurance crisis and President Taft explain his attitude toward organized labor. There are stories by Elsie Singmaster, Hulbert Footner, Viola Roseboro, P. C. Macfarlane, Harriet Lummis Smith and the last instalment of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's great novel, "Marriage a la Mode."

AUSPICIOUS END FOR M'LEAN

More Than a Score of Degrees Conferred Thursday Night.

SENIOR CLASS BANQUET

Class Honors Won by Mr. Swann and Miss Clark.

The debate at McLean College Wednesday night was heard by a large crowd, the discussion being on the subject:

"Resolved, That a man should wear patched clothes."

Neal and W. Nance for the affirmative and A. Kuykendall and Hester for the negative argued the question eloquently from every standpoint. The decision was awarded to the affirmative by Judges H. Clay Smith, P. P. B. Brooks and Lloyd E. Foster. After the debate the senior class was banqueted at Hotel Latham, covers being laid for fifty.

Prof. Smith acted as toastmaster and a number of witty speeches were made. The accomplished toastmaster was at his best and kept things "moving." The program was as follows:

A Home Run.....P. G. Webb
The Sunny South.....A. R. McGarry
Business Before Pleasure..... Omar P'Pool
Love (at) 40.....Malcolm McMullen
Am I Dreaming..... Dan Perry
Going, But Not Forgetting..... G. B. Swann

The regular commencement exercises were held Thursday night and the following nineteen graduates received degrees:

Emily Rogers Clark, A. B.
Clara Mai Bachman, A. B.
Naomi Lee Johnson, A. B.
William Carlton Kuykendall, A. B.
Katharine Quarles, A. B.
Evelyn Bell Quarles, A. B.
George Betts Swann, A. B.
Ida Damaris Croft, B. S.

Mary Clare Younglove, B. S.
Herbert Hobson Grace, B. L.
Arthur Rees, McGarry, B. L.
Abner Dea Sherrill, B. L.
Mary Sebastian Whitaker, B. L.
Percy Gilmore Webb, B. L.
Omer P'Pool, M. A.
Also the following in music:
Augusta Slayden Kuykendall.
Elizabeth Graham O'Brien.
Della Salmon.

There was instrumental music by Misses Della Salmon, Gussie Kuykendall, Elizabeth O'Brien, Katherine Long and Mr. Ralph Hudspeth. Miss Emily Clark was salutatorian of the class and the valedictory honors went to Mr. George B. Swann.

The auspicious closing marked the end of one of the most successful sessions in the history of the college. The class was perhaps the largest ever graduated at one time, being about equally divided between the young men and the young ladies.
